

The British Virgin Islands (BVI) are not just a sailor's paradise; they are also a culinary haven.

Exploring the BVI's gastronomic scene is a delightful adventure in itself. From local favorites to beachy hangouts, fine dining establishments, and legendary beach bars, this is your guide to some of the best places to eat and drink in the BVI

Savoring the Flavors of the BVI

BEST RESTAURANTS AND BEACH BARS

Foxy's Bar (Jost Van Dyke):

No visit to Jost Van Dyke is complete without a stop at Foxy's Bar.

Famous for its friendly owner, Foxy Callwood, and his legendary parties, Foxy's offers a taste of the Caribbean through its fresh seafood and island-inspired cocktails. Nestled on Norman Island, Pirates Bight is a local gem known for its fresh seafood and Caribbean-inspired dishes.

The serene waterfront setting adds to the charm, making it a must-visit for those looking for an authentic BVI dining experience.

LOCAL FAVORITES

Leverick Bay Restaurant (Virgin Gorda):

Located in North Sound, Virgin Gorda, Leverick Bay Restaurant is famous for its lively atmosphere and Caribbean barbecue nights.

Enjoy local specialties like conch fritters while watching the sunset over the marina.

B-Line Beach Bar (Little Jost Van Dyke):

If you're looking for a truly laid-back beach bar experience, B-Line Beach Bar, on Little Jost Van Dyke, is a top choice.

Enjoy delicious seafood, tropical drinks, and the relaxed vibe of this remote island beach bar. Cooper Island Beach Club Restaurant (Cooper Island):

With its eco-friendly approach and stunning beachfront location, Cooper Island Beach Club is a paradise for seafood lovers. Savor fresh catches of the day and sip on craft cocktails while taking in the breathtaking views.

BEACHY WATERY FAVORITES

Saba Rock Resort and Restaurant (Saba Rock):

Perched on a tiny island in North Sound, Saba Rock Resort and Restaurant is a unique experience.

Enjoy a meal surrounded by water, and don't miss their seafood platters and island-inspired dishes.

CocoMaya Restaurant (Virgin Gorda):

CocoMaya offers a fusion of Asian and Latin American flavors in a stylish setting. It's perfect for those seeking a high-end dining experience with creative cocktails and delectable dishes. Housed in a historic sugar mill, this restaurant offers a romantic and upscale dining experience.

The menu is inspired by Caribbean and international flavors, with a focus on using locally sourced ingredients.

Don't miss their famous Lobster Thermidor.

FINE DINING

Brandywine Estate Restaurant (Tortola):

For a taste of Europeaninspired cuisine with Caribbean flair, Brandywine Estate Restaurant is the place to be.

This upscale restaurant offers a refined atmosphere and an extensive wine list to complement its gourmet dishes.

Willy T's (Norman Island):

Anchored off Norman Island, the William Thornton, or Willy T's as it's known, is a floating bar and restaurant.

It's famous for its lively parties, water sports, and, of course, rum shots. Be ready for a wild time!

For a true beachy vibe, visit Cow Wreck Beach Bar on Anegada.

This beachfront gem offers a relaxed atmosphere, delicious local seafood, and breathtaking sunset views. It's the perfect spot to unwind with your toes in the sand.

LEGENDARY BEACH BARS

Foxy's (Jost Van Dyke):

No BVI adventure is complete without a stop at Foxy's.

Known for its charismatic owner and legendary parties, Foxy's is a vibrant beach bar offering local drinks, live music, and an unforgettable atmosphere.

Soggy Dollar Bar (Jost Van Dyke):

Located on White Bay, Soggy Dollar Bar is famous for it's Painkiller cocktail.

Enjoy the soft white sand and turquoise waters as you sip on this signature drink and soak up the island vibes.

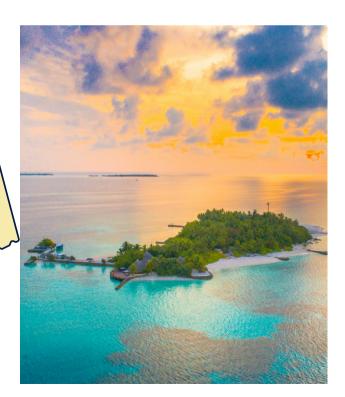

Whether you're a foodie seeking fine dining or a beach lover looking for a laid-back vibe, the BVI has something for everyone.

As you embark on your sailing adventure, be sure to explore these culinary treasures to make your BVI experience truly unforgettable.

MAPPING THEM OUT

There are tons of other great restaurants and bars in the BVI.

Every meal (and snack and drink in between) is an opportunity to savor the flavors of the Caribbean and indulge in the beauty of the islands.

click on the map icon